

Co-Chairpersons: Barbara Thomas, Ph.D. and Les Wyman, Ph.D., LISW (Cleveland, OH)

Bloomington, IN: Denise Hyble, MS, (812 334 2858) & Nancy Rutkowski, LCSW (812 330 1325)

Pittsburgh, PA: Doty Lee Mauney, M.ED. LPC (412 363 1702)

Silver City, NM: Neal Apple, MD & Vicki Allen, LISW (505 388 8114)

Nashville, TN: Carleen Britton, LCSW (615 308 6225)

Buffalo, NY: Jonathan Treible, Ph.D. (716-480-1997)

Or contact:
LesWyman@TheForeSightGroup.org

Multi-Media Supports for Training!

Each program includes local faculty facilitated:

- Internet-based voice chat events
- Personal Development groups
- Supervised practicums
- Reading materials on-line

Dates and times: To be determined.
Anticipated start-up Fall 2007

Fees: $495.00 per five session module

Registration

Admission to the program is by application. Local faculty will facilitate registrations.

gestalt
Institute of Cleveland

Presents:

Distance Learning Training Program

Learn effective Gestalt practice on-line and in your own community

This is an experiential distance learning program in which you will:

- Learn basic theory and practices of Gestalt Therapy
- Heighten your awareness of yourself as the instrument of therapeutic work
- Enhance your ability to work effectively in the here and now
- Increase your awareness of your own and your clients' habitual ways of organizing experience

Program Modules

This training program is presented in three modules. Each module consists of five on-line and four face-to-face practicum sessions (31 CE credits) in your area.

Completion of all three modules comprises a foundation program (93 CE credits) in Gestalt practice.

The Gestalt Institute of Cleveland grants continuing education credits for psychologists, social workers and counselors.

Access this professional development opportunity without travel, lodging expenses or extra time away from home or work.

The Gestalt Institute of Cleveland

Learn from the best!

The Gestalt Institute of Cleveland (GIC), a leader in Gestalt theory and practice development, brings over 50 years of skill, knowledge and training experience to your community.

Distance learning faculty members are experienced practitioners of Gestalt therapy.

For more information about The Gestalt Institute of Cleveland and this program see our website: www.GestaltCleveland.org

1588 Hazel Drive
Cleveland, Ohio 44106
Tel: 216 421 0468